

I love my xmradio and totally support satellite radio. I think there are much bigger problems and issues in this world to be worrying about than stopping XM from providing traffic and weather. All of XM's subscribers pay a monthly charge for the service, so if people don't want or like satellite radio, then don't subscribe and don't pay for it. Leave us paying individuals alone and let us enjoy our xmradio